

Child Sexual Abuse

Are you comfortable talking about the meaning of sexual abuse or healthy boundaries with your child?

Do you know where your child goes when they leave your house?

Do you know their friends?

Have you met your child's friends' parents?

Do you where their friends live?

We need to practice two words...
STOP AND NO.

Start now.

Have a Healthy Conversation with your child:

- ⇒ Have your child ask for permission to go places
- ⇒ Teach your child to be honest with you
- ⇒ Remind them you are a safe person
- ⇒ Talk to your child about their day

Explain to your children why it is important to have a healthy and open communication.

The most important thing you can say to a child who tells you about sexual abuse is...

I BELIEVE YOU
