

161ST ANNUAL

FIVE TRIBES TREATY OF PEACE CELEBRATION

Welcome to the 161st Five Tribes Treaty of Peace

“UNITED IN PROTECTING THE PEACE SINCE 1863”

Over 160 years ago there was an increase of settlers who came to Southern Arizona to cash in on the riches of gold. The new settlers were being attacked, it was because of these attacks that the five tribes and the United States military came together in Fort Yuma, from April 7-11, 1863, to develop a formal document in which each tribe pledged to one another, mutual peace and to protect American settlers from further attack. The representatives of each tribe at the Five Tribes Treaty of Peace are as follows:

MARICOPA: CHIEF JUAN CHIEVARIA AND SUB CHIEF JUAN JOSE

PIMA: CHIEF ANTONIO AZUL YUMA/QUECHAN: CHIEF JACK

HUALAPAI: CHIEF WAUBA YUBA CHEMEHUEVI: CHIEF PAY COYER

Since the peace treaty, the American Southwest has flourished and grown
