

Animal Control Services

The Tribal Health Department/Animal Control Program has the following services currently available:

- Dog or cat licensing
- Animal welfare investigations
- Quarantine bite cases resulting in home quarantine
- Reports of stray, roaming and/or deceased animals
- Health vaccine services

The services below are unavailable at this time:

- Spay and Neuter services
- Basic animal health exams
- Tick medication services
- Rabies vaccine services
- Animal sheltering
- Surrendering of animals to the shelter by pet owner
- Owned and spray sick or injured pets.

If you have any questions, please contact the Animal Control Program at (520) 562-5177 or the Tribal Health Department at (520) 562-5100.